DECONTROLLED/UNCLASSIFIED

This memorandum assigns responsibilities for preparation of briefing materials for use by the Secretary during his visit to the Peoples' Republic of China November 15-17. Bureaus wishing to suggest changes to this tasker should contact the S/S-S Action Officer as soon as possible.

I. BRIEFING MATERIALS FOR THE SECRETARY

A. Scope Paper: EAP should draft a scope paper for the Secretary (through P) outlining the setting, objectives and strategy for the trip. The paper should be done as a TOSEC cable, in standard scope paper format (sample attached) and should be no more than three pages long. The paper should be cleared by P, E, C, T, S/P, H and other bureaus as appropriate. The scope paper is due to the EAP Coordinator by COB Friday, November 8 and to the S/S-S Action Officer by NOON TUESDAY, November 12.

B. Core Talking Points: Bureaus should prepare core talking points for the Secretary's visit on the topics listed below. Points should be in tick-and-bullet format and should not exceed one page per topic (sample attached) and should be submitted to the EAP Deputy Coordinator as cable pages. They should be cleared at a minimum by P, C, E, H and S/P. They are due to the EAP Coordinator by COB Friday, November 8. EAP should assemble the package into two TOSEC cables (Bilateral Issues and Regional Issues) due to the S/S-S Action Officer by NOON Tuesday, November 12.
